

KVK Dimapur organised Kisan Mela

A two days Campaign programme on “Kisan Bhagidari Prathamika Hamari and Jal Shakti Abhiyan” under Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav was organised by KVK Dimapur, ICAR, Nagaland Centre at ICAR Research Complex from 27th - 28th May, 2022.

Shri Imsongmeren, ADC Medziphema, Special Guest of the programme inaugurated the exhibition stall before the inaugural session.

The programme was chaired by Ms. E. Lireni Kikon ACTO, Plant protection and welcome address by Dr. Ebibeni Ngullie Senior Scientist and Head (i/c) KVK Dimapur.

Dr. L. K. Baishya, Joint Director in charge of ICAR Nagaland centre in his address appeal the farmers to make use of the schemes that is being implemented by the Government of India. He also stressed on the promotion of crop diversification and water conservation for a sustainable agriculture. He also stressed on the need for different Integrated Farming System models.

The special guest in his address encouraged the farmers to take timely benefit of the scientist in the centre. He also informed the participants that out of the five elements of nature, water is the most important and there can be no civilization without water. He also acknowledged the ICAR for their contribution towards the food security and urged the ICAR and farmers to work hand in hand.